

1. Policy Statement

The Company is committed to maintaining a workplace that promotes fairness, equal opportunity, dignity, and respect for all employees and applicants. This Policy establishes the Company's standards and guidelines to prevent discrimination in all aspects of employment and to promote a work environment where employment decisions are based solely on legitimate business requirements, merit, qualifications, competence, fitness for work, and job performance.

This Policy likewise adopts the Company's Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) principles and affirms that all qualified applicants and employees shall be given fair and equitable access to employment opportunities, compensation, benefits, training, promotion, transfer, and other terms and conditions of employment, without unlawful discrimination.

The Company does not tolerate discrimination in any form and shall administer all employment-related decisions in a manner consistent with applicable laws, regulations, and lawful company standards.

2. Coverage

This Policy shall apply to:

- All applicants for employment;
- All employees of the Company, regardless of employment status;
- All supervisors, managers, department heads, officers, and representatives of the Company involved in employment-related decisions; and
- All employment-related processes, including recruitment, hiring, onboarding, training, work assignment, compensation, benefits, promotion, transfer, discipline, and separation from employment.

This Policy covers all Company-operated work environments, work-related activities, and official employment processes.

3. Policy on Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO)

The Company provides Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) to all qualified applicants and employees.

All employment decisions shall be based on legitimate business needs, job-related qualifications, merit, competence, fitness for work, performance, and operational requirements, and shall not be based on unlawful discriminatory factors unrelated to the inherent requirements of the position.

The Company shall provide equal opportunity in, but not limited to, the following employment practices:

- Recruitment and sourcing of applicants;
- Selection, screening, and hiring decisions;
- Job assignments and deployment;
- Training and development opportunities;
- Performance evaluation and assessment;
- Promotion, transfer, or movement within the organization;
- Compensation and benefits administration;
- Access to company facilities, programs, and privileges;
- Disciplinary actions and performance management; and
- Separation, non-regularization, or termination decisions.

4. Prohibition Against Discrimination

The Company prohibits discrimination against any applicant or employee on the basis of any characteristic protected by applicable law, or any similar status not relevant to the lawful requirements of the job.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, discrimination is prohibited on the basis of, including but not limited to:

- Age - Republic Act No. 10911 (Anti-Age Discrimination in Employment Act);
- Sex or gender;
- Sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, to the extent protected by applicable laws, local ordinances, or valid company standards;
- Civil status or marital status;
- Pregnancy or potential pregnancy, where protected by law;
- Disability or physical/mental condition, subject to lawful fitness-for-work requirements and reasonable accommodation where applicable;

- Religion or religious belief;
- Ethnicity, ancestry, or place of origin;
- Language or accent, except where legitimately required by the role;
- Educational background, where not materially related to the position;
- Health status, to the extent protected by law and subject to lawful occupational health requirements; and
- Any other protected classification under applicable laws, regulations, or lawful government directives.

No applicant or employee shall be denied employment opportunities, treated less favorably, or subjected to adverse employment action on the basis of any protected characteristic, unless the distinction is based on a lawful, bona fide occupational qualification or other valid legal exception.

5. Lawful Employment Distinctions

- Nothing in this Policy shall prohibit the Company from applying lawful distinctions, standards, or requirements that are based on the inherent requirements of the job or that are expressly permitted by law.
- The Company may lawfully consider factors such as:
 - Required education, licensure, certification, or professional qualification;
 - Relevant work experience;
 - Language proficiency or communication skills where materially required by the role;
 - Physical, medical, or fitness-for-work requirements directly related to job performance, workplace safety, or legal compliance;
 - Client, account, or regulatory requirements, provided such requirements are lawful and not contrary to public policy;
 - Security, confidentiality, trust, or compliance-related role qualifications; and
 - Performance, conduct, attendance, productivity, and behavioral standards applied consistently and fairly.

No employee or applicant may invoke this Policy to prevent the Company from enforcing lawful performance standards, qualification requirements, or legitimate business rules that are uniformly and fairly applied.

6. Prohibited Discriminatory Acts

Without prejudice to other acts that may constitute unlawful discrimination, the following acts are prohibited under this Policy:

- Refusing to accept or process an application solely because of a protected characteristic;
- Limiting, excluding, or discouraging an applicant from applying for a role based on a protected characteristic;
- Imposing unnecessary or non-job-related qualifications that disproportionately exclude individuals without lawful basis;
- Denying training, certification opportunities, coaching, or career development on discriminatory grounds;
- Assigning less favorable work, shifts, schedules, or responsibilities solely because of a protected characteristic, unless based on lawful business necessity;
- Denying promotion, transfer, incentives, or benefits on discriminatory grounds;
- Applying disciplinary measures inconsistently or more harshly on the basis of a protected characteristic;
- Requiring resignation, imposing non-regularization, or effecting separation from employment on discriminatory grounds; and
- Retaliating against an employee or applicant for raising a concern, reporting possible discrimination, participating in an internal review, or cooperating in a lawful investigation.

7. Reporting and Internal Review

Any applicant or employee who believes that they have been subjected to discrimination, or who becomes aware of conduct that may violate this Policy, is encouraged to report the matter to:

- The Human Resources Department;
- The immediate supervisor or next-level manager, where appropriate; or
- Any other authorized Company representative designated to receive employment-related concerns.

The Company shall review reported concerns in a fair, timely, and confidential manner to the extent reasonably practicable, subject to due process and the need to gather facts.

8. Corrective Action and Disciplinary Measures

Any employee, supervisor, manager, or representative of the Company found to have violated this Policy may be subject to appropriate corrective or disciplinary action in accordance with the Company's Code of Conduct, due process requirements, and applicable labor laws.

The Company reserves the right to impose appropriate disciplinary measures depending on the nature, gravity, frequency, and impact of the violation.

9. Compliance with Laws and Government Regulations

This Policy shall be interpreted and implemented in accordance with the Labor Code of the Philippines, Republic Act No. 10911 (Anti-Age Discrimination in Employment Act), and other applicable laws, regulations, lawful local ordinances, and government issuances relating to equal employment opportunity and non-discrimination.

Where a provision of this Policy is found to be inconsistent with a mandatory legal requirement, the applicable law or regulation shall prevail, and the remaining provisions of this Policy shall continue to apply to the extent permitted by law.

POLICY REVIEW

This policy will continue to be in force unless superseded by a revised policy. The company reserves the right to amend, abrogate, modify, rescind/ reinstate the entire policy or any part of it at any time.

DOCUMENT HISTORY

Version	Date	Author (function)	Reviewed by	Approved by	Nature of changes
1.0	March 18, 2026	Dolley Campugan, HR Generalist Apple Mag-usara, HR Generalist	Rhea Alao, Finance & Accounting Director Mark Valencia, Site Director Marc Louise Castanares, Site Manager	Giovanni Yap, Executive Director Anthony Aragon, HR Director	First Integrated issue