

1. Purpose

This policy establishes the guidelines governing remote work arrangements to ensure productivity, data security, accountability, and compliance with company and client requirements.

It aims to:

- Maintain operational efficiency in a remote setting
- Protect company and client data
- Ensure clear expectations on performance and conduct

2. Coverage

This policy applies to employees who are:

- Approved for remote or work-from-home (WFH) arrangements
- Assigned to accounts or roles that allow remote work

Remote work is a privilege, not a right, and is subject to management and client approval.

3. Eligibility

Employees may be eligible for remote work based on:

- Nature of the role and client requirements
- Performance and attendance record
- Compliance with company policies
- Availability of required infrastructure

The Company reserves the right to approve, deny, suspend, or revoke remote work arrangements at any time.

4. Work Schedule and Attendance

Employees must:

- Adhere strictly to their assigned work schedules
- Log in and out using company-approved timekeeping systems
- Observe break schedules and shift adherence

Tardiness, absenteeism, or unauthorized offline activities shall be subject to disciplinary action.

5. Workplace Requirements

Employees approved for remote work must maintain a suitable work environment, including:

- Quiet and distraction-free workspace
- Reliable internet connection
- Functional computer/laptop meeting company specifications
- Backup power and/or internet (recommended for business continuity)

Failure to maintain required conditions may result in revocation of remote work privileges.

6. Equipment and Asset Management

Employees shall be responsible for all company-issued equipment, including:

- Proper use and care of devices
- Protection against loss, damage, or unauthorized access
- Immediate reporting of technical issues or incidents

Company equipment must be used solely for work purposes.

7. Information Security and Data Privacy

Employees must strictly comply with all data security and confidentiality policies.

This includes:

- No sharing of login credentials
- No use of unauthorized devices or applications
- Ensuring screens are not visible to unauthorized individuals
- Use of secure internet connections only

Handling of client and company data must comply with the Data Privacy Act of 2012 and client security standards.

Any data breach or security incident must be reported immediately.

8. Performance and Productivity

Remote employees are expected to meet or exceed the same performance standards as on-site employees, including:

- Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) such as AHT, CSAT, QA, and adherence
- Quality and productivity targets
- Attendance and reliability

Failure to meet performance expectations may result in:

- Revocation of remote work privileges; and/or
- Disciplinary action

9. Monitoring and Supervision

The Company reserves the right to implement monitoring measures to ensure productivity and compliance, including:

- System activity monitoring
- Screen monitoring or tracking tools
- Attendance and productivity tracking

All monitoring shall be conducted in accordance with applicable laws and company policies.

10. Communication and Availability

Employees must:

- Remain reachable during working hours
- Actively participate in meetings, coaching sessions, and huddles
- Respond promptly to supervisors and team communications

Failure to maintain communication may be treated as a performance or conduct issue.

11. Health and Safety

Employees are responsible for maintaining a safe working environment at home.

The Company shall not be liable for injuries sustained outside the scope of work or due to unsafe home conditions.

Employees are encouraged to observe proper ergonomics and take necessary breaks.

12. Client and Operational Requirements

Remote work arrangements may be subject to:

- Client approval and compliance standards
- Account-specific requirements
- Data security protocols

The Company may require employees to report onsite if:

- Required by the client
- Operationally necessary
- Due to performance or compliance concerns

13. Revocation of Remote Work Privilege

Remote work privileges may be revoked under the following circumstances:

- Performance issues
- Attendance violations
- Data security breaches
- Non-compliance with company policies
- Client request or operational requirement

Employees may be required to transition back to onsite work upon notice.

14. Disciplinary Action

Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action in accordance with the Code of Conduct and Discipline (COCD), including:

- Warnings
- Suspension
- Termination (for serious violations such as data breaches or fraud)

POLICY REVIEW

This policy will continue to be in force unless superseded by a revised policy. The company reserves the right to amend, abrogate, modify, rescind/ reinstate the entire policy or any part of it at any time.

DOCUMENT HISTORY

Version	Date	Author (function)	Reviewed by	Approved by	Nature of changes
1.0	March 18, 2026	Dolley Campugan, HR Generalist Apple Mag- usara, HR Generalist	Rhea Alao, Finance & Accounting Director Mark Valencia, Site Director Marc Louise Castanares, Site Manager	Giovanni Yap, Executive Director Anthony Aragon, HR Director	First Integrated issue