

WORKING HOURS, OVERTIME & RESTDAYS

1. Policy Statement

The Company recognizes the rights of employees to fair working hours, adequate rest periods, and lawful compensation for overtime work. This policy establishes the guidelines governing working hours, overtime work, and rest days in accordance with the provisions of the Labor Code of the Philippines and relevant regulations issued by the Department of Labor and Employment.

2. Coverage

This policy shall apply to all employees of the Company unless otherwise provided by law or by the nature of their employment.

Employees who are exempt from certain provisions of working hours under the Labor Code shall be governed by the applicable legal provisions and company policies.

3. Normal Hours of Work

The normal hours of work of employees shall not exceed eight (8) hours per day, exclusive of meal periods, in accordance with the Labor Code.

The Company may implement various work schedules, including shifting or rotating schedules, depending on operational requirements.

Employees are expected to observe their assigned schedules and properly record their attendance using the Company's authorized timekeeping system.

4. Break Periods

The Company shall provide employees with appropriate break periods during their shift consistent with operational requirements and employee welfare.

The following break structure shall apply within the Company:

- Employees working an eight (8) hour shift shall be provided a thirty (30) minute break period within the shift.
- Employees working a nine (9) hour shift shall be provided a sixty (60) minute break period, which may include meal and rest breaks.

Break schedules shall be arranged by the employee's supervisor or workforce management team to ensure continuity of operations.

WORKING HOURS, OVERTIME & RESTDAYS

5. Rest Days

Employees shall be provided two (2) rest days per week, consistent with the Company's work scheduling practices.

Rest days may be scheduled on any day of the week depending on operational requirements and shift assignments.

Employees may be required to work on their scheduled rest day in cases of operational necessity, emergencies, or when the nature of the work requires continuous operations.

6. Overtime Work

Overtime work refers to work performed beyond eight (8) hours in a day.

Employees who render overtime work shall be entitled to additional compensation equivalent to at least twenty-five percent (25%) of their regular wage rate for work performed beyond eight (8) hours on an ordinary working day, in accordance with applicable labor laws.

All overtime work must be authorized or approved by the employee's immediate supervisor or department head, except in cases of emergency or urgent operational necessity.

7. Work on Rest Days

Employees who are required or permitted to work on their scheduled rest day shall be entitled to additional compensation equivalent to at least thirty percent (30%) of their regular wage rate for the first eight (8) hours of work.

Additional compensation shall be provided for work rendered beyond eight (8) hours on a rest day in accordance with applicable labor laws and regulations.

8. Timekeeping

Employees shall accurately record their time in and time out using the Company's official timekeeping system.

Failure to properly record attendance, unauthorized alteration of time records, or falsification of attendance records may result in disciplinary action in accordance with the Company's Code of Conduct.

WORKING HOURS, OVERTIME & RESTDAYS

9. Management Prerogative

The Company reserves the right to determine work schedules, shift assignments, overtime requirements, and rest day schedules based on operational needs, provided that such arrangements remain compliant with applicable labor laws and regulations.

POLICY REVIEW

This policy will continue to be in force unless superseded by a revised policy. The company reserves the right to amend, abrogate, modify, rescind/ reinstate the entire policy or any part of it at any time.
